

Urban Park Rangers January Calendar

Fort Greene Park

Fort Greene Historic

12 p.m. – Orienteering to the Past- Learn how to pass while learning about the past. After the basics, follow our coordinates to acknowledge about Fort Green's distinguished past.

Sat, 1/10, 1p.m. – GPS to the Past- Learn how to use a Global Position System unit while learning about the past. After learning the basics, follow our coordinates to acknowledge Fort Green's distinguished past.

Sun, 1/11, 1p.m.–Food Chain for Champions- Who are the best hunters in the animal kingdom? Come discover what food chains exist in your backyard.

Sun, 1/18, 1p.m.–African Americans and the American Revolution-Join us while we examine the often overlooked contributions made by African Americans during the Revolutionary War.

Sat, 1/24, 1p.m.–Tools of the Revolution- Learn about the weapons, cookware and tools that were used during the Revolutionary War. What was once considered “state of art.”

Sun, 1/25, 1p.m.–Trains and Trolleys- Head back to the good old days, when trolleys clattered and clanged along the streets of Brooklyn.

Journey Through Time Walking Series

Downtown Brooklyn & Brooklyn Heights
Sunday, 1/04, 1p.m.

This addition of our popular walking tour series will showcase two of Brooklyn's oldest neighborhoods.

Wear comfortable walking shoes; dress for the weather.
Walking tours will last about 2 ½ hours.

Meet at Brooklyn Borough Hall

Prospect Park

Sat, 1/10, 1p.m. – Winter Wildlife-Join the Rangers as we search for the winter residents of Prospect Park. Meet outside Wollman Rink.

Sat, 1/24, 1p.m. – Forever Evergreen- Why do some trees stay green all year? Join the Urban Park Rangers and find out why. Meet outside the Picnic House.

Sat, 1/31, 1p.m. – Winter Wonderland Hike- Enjoy the stark beauty of Olmsted and Vaux's masterpiece in the winter on this ranger led walking tour. Meet outside the Audubon Center.

For all tours, please dress for the weather and wear comfortable walking shoes.

Morning
Birding at the Salt
Marsh,
Saturdays at 8 a.m.

I Spy Nature Program at the Salt
Marsh,
3-4 Year
Olds, Starts
again in March 2009

