

RCC CONTRACT

The RCC program is a fun, exciting program and it needs your full commitment. Before you sign on to the program, please review the following information to make sure it is right for you.

Participation and Attendance

Each and every RCC session, you should come on time and be ready to work. Every RCC member is expected to participate to the best of their abilities. This means: have a positive attitude, be willing to try new things, help others, share ideas and ask questions. The more you put in to this program, the more everyone will get out of it.

You are now part of a team that needs you at each session. It is important that the Ranger and the other RCC members can count on you to be there, together we can accomplish more and have more fun.

In the RCC program, it's Three Strikes and you're OUT! That means you can only be late or absent for 2 RCC sessions per semester, on your third lateness or absence, you're out of the program.

If you know you are going to be late or absent, please let your Ranger know at least 24hrs in advance.

Proper Attire

In this program, you'll experience the parks like never before. We go camping, canoeing, planting, exploring, rock climbing, hiking and more! We get dirty, sometimes really dirty! Be prepared by wearing the proper attire:

- A good pair of old sneakers are great!
- Long pants for tromping in the woods
- Your RCC T-shirt
- A hat is good for hot days
- Any clothes that can get dirty

Follow this list and you'll be fine. So leave those length-challenged skirts and hundred dollar Jordan's at home.

I have read, understand and agree to the above material and will perform at my best at everything I do. In return for my efforts I expect to have a great experience through fun and exciting projects as Ranger Conservation Corps member.
